

ISSUE 87: February 2018

HAPPY CHINESE NEW YEAR!

In this edition of our newsletter we would like to wish all our readers a happy Chinese New Year! Chinese New Year was marked on the 16th of February this year and is traditionally celebrated with family re-unions, spectacular fireworks, traditional lion/dragon dances and delicious dumplings and noodles.

Since the beginning of its 20 year history Study Links has had very close ties to China with founding members Angela and Eric acting as guardians to their own family from China. The couple acted as official guardians for nephews, nieces, family friends and acquaintances from the mid 1980s onward. After 10 years of juggling full time work and voluntary guardianship they decided to follow their passion of offering support to students wishing to study in the UK and Study Links was born in 1998. For this reason providing and caring for students in the UK is much more than a business, we see our students as part of the Study Links family, this is why we always stay true to our mission of providing the best for our students so they can reach their full potential in the UK.

As this year's Chinese zodiac is characterised by loyalty and hard work we would like to take this opportunity to thank all our trusted agents, partners and associates again for all the efforts you have made working with us to ensure our students receive only the very best in the UK.

Happy New Year to you all and wishing you happiness health and prosperity in 2018!

CHINESE GROUP VISITS RISHWORTH SCHOOL

Rishworth School were delighted to welcome a group of Chinese students from the 5th to the 9th of February who were on their winter break and looking to enjoy immersion into daily lessons at a traditional British boarding school.

As Chinese New Year was on the 16th Feb, the visit was of particular interest to Rishworth School students who learned about Chinese culture. The school hosted a special celebration for the group with a party organised for the final night which featured a song and dance performance from the group as well as music from a professional DJ.

May the year of the dog bring you good health, prosperity, and peace.

From all the Study Links team, and our dogs!
